NATIONAL SECURITY COUNCIL

November 8, 1966

NOTE FOR MR. ROSTOW

This is a very interesting study. I have not had an opportunity to read it completely, but I do not find sufficient consideration of reactions of other nations in the event we should follow one of these courses.

Recently the Chicoms have failed to reiterate their earlier offer of volunteers for Vietnam. Even in the recent celebration of the 16th anniversary of the introduction of "Chinese volunteers" into Korea, no link was made with the concept of volunteers for Vietnam.
